

ELEGATES APPLAUD DENVERITE

ceased With Judge Lind-ey's Advice to Restrict Court's Power

COMMITTEEMEN NAMED

legate H. C. Keller Given Place
on Labor, Municipal and Agriculture.

Columbus, Jan. 19.—Suggestion
Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Denver at the right of the courts to declare laws unconstitutional believed to be a unanimous decision, if taken away altogether, was set with a round of applause by members of the constitutional convention yesterday.

In the course of a brief address to delegates, to whom he was presented by President Bigelow as "having fought with the beasts at Denver," Judge Lindsay said:

"You needn't fear trusting the people. Put a curb on the courts as done in England. In no other country than this may the courts declare a law unconstitutional. They couldn't be permitted to do so unless the constitutionality is beyond a reasonable doubt. Chief Justice Marshall said that. And there is no one who says there is. So law should not be declared to be unconstitutional unless the court is unanimous."

The convention, which received the apparent favor of this radical suggestion, will plunge into its real work Monday evening, to which time
it adjourned, on the announcement yesterday by President Bigelow of a standing committee, with promises of dealing kindly with its opponents, and yet giving them only six months.

There was agreement that he had replied to his announced intention of placing the strongest opponents of the committee which will deal with them. The judiciary and bill rights committee was considered strong one.

Both the wets and dries expressed satisfaction with the way President Bigelow had discharged the delicate

duty of framing the liquor traffic committee.

On it are eight wets and eight dries, with five not committed.
The convention declined to pledge
its co-operation with the Ohio-Columbian centennial. A resolution to that effect, offered by Mr. Evans of Scioto, was laid on the table on motion of Dr. Brown of Highland, seconded by Mr. Woods of Medina.

This action was said to mean merely opposition to making a precedent for the adoption of miscellaneous resolutions on behalf of outside projects. The delegates took the view they are authorized to do nothing except make a constitution.

Delegates were named to invite President Taft, on the occasion of his visit, Jan. 30, and Governor Harmon to address the convention.

Good roads enthusiasts dropped grist into the hopper of the constitutional mill yesterday. Proposals were submitted by Mr. Stewart of Meigs for $50,000,000 for road building, the amount apportioned to the counties; by Mr. Smith of Geauga to raise the state debt limit to $50-000,000; by Mr. Watson of Guernsey to strike out the present prohibition of bonds for internal improvement.

Prohibition was popular yesterday with delegates. There were submitted proposals to prohibit cigars,
the liquor traffic, absolute divorce,
reading of the Bible in the schools,
stock watering, double taxation, grand juries and coroners. Mr. Watson of Guernsey attacked cigars; Mr.
Bowdler of Hamilton, divorce; Mr.
Bigham of Cuyahoga, who submitted 15 proposals, would forbid issuing of stock or bonds except for money received or labor done. He also would bar from the public schools Bible reading and sectarian hymns and prayers. On the contrary, Mr.
Pettit of Adams proposed forbidding the enactment of laws against the use of the Bible in schools.

Mr. Riley of Washington is against double taxation. Mr. Watson would exempt mortgaged realty to the extent of the indebtedness. Mr. Dunn of Clermont would provide that a taxpayer be assessed only for the difference between his assets and his debts. Mr. Hahn is opposed to double taxation except on bonds and corporation assets and would provide a one-half of 1 per cent tax on mortgages and individuals. He also opposes incuring of any kind of public indebtedness without a coincidental tax for principal and interest.

Mr. Eby of Preble proposed restricting the raising of state revenues to taxes on corporations, and Mr. Brown of Pike that 1 1/2 per cent
be the maximum rate.

While Mr. Watson proposed that license of the liquor traffic be prohibited, Mr. Tallman of Belmont submitted a license proposal differing in that of Judge Kirtland of Sandusky in that it would wipe out county option. Mr. Miller of Fairfield put in alternative proposals for state prohibition or license with the requirement that the general assembly regulate the traffic "and all orders resulting therefrom."

A proposal by Mr. Marriott of Delaware for licensing and regulation with the preservation of the option
plan in counties and minor subdivisions.

TAFT AMONG GUESTS

Groom Gives Bride Securities Valued at Four Million—Other Presents Worth $2,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Given in marriage by her son, in the presence of only 30 guests, one of whom was the president of the United States, Mrs. Lucetta Roberts Cromwell, wife of Oliver Eaton Cromwell, banker and clubman, yesterday became the richest bride in America. One gift of the bridegroom, Edward T.
Stotesbury, who is affiliated with J. Pierpont Morgan, consisted of securities valued at $4,000,000. Other gifts, diamonds, pearls, emeralds and rubies, are worth $2,000,000 or more.

Following out the old adage,
"Something old, something new,
something borrowed, something blue," Mrs. Cromwell wore for luck instead of the $500,000 pearl necklace given her by Mr. Stotesbury, a close strand of pearls given her by Oliver Cromwell, her former husband, some Christmas ago.

The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock last evening at the bride's home in New Hampshire avenue, Rt.
Rev. Edward Harding, bishop of Washington, officiated.

It was one of the smallest weddings, in point of attendance, held here for some years and simplicity marked the arrangements, save for the personal decorations and trousseau
of the bride.

The Cromwell home was beautifully decorated with American Beauty

PRES. TAFT

Left For New Haven This Morning
to Attend Chamber of Commerce Dinner.

Washington, Jan. 19.—President Taft left Washington this morning at 7:35 for New Haven where he will attend a dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce and a meeting of the Yale Corporation. Starting back after the Yale corporation meeting tomorrow the president will stop in New York from 7 p. m. to midnight during which time he is scheduled to attend banquets given by the New York Bar Association, the Society of the Genesee and the Twenty-Four Karat Club.

MUNICIPAL COURT

Of Akron Will Establish a Municipal Employment Bureau for First Offenders.

Akron, O., Jan. 19.—An employment bureau in connection with the new municipal court of Akron is to be established by Judge John R.
Vaughan with a view of reforming men arrested for the first time for misdemeanors. The plan is to place these men on probation, give them something to do and have them make weekly reports to the court.

Judge Vaughan is in Columbus today for the purpose of ascertaining how the municipal court is run in that city.

WITNESSES DISCREDIT STORY OF OHIO MAN WHO TELLS SHERIFF HE PAID THOUSAND DOLLARS TO FARMERS WHO KILLED HIS SISTER

Sheriff T. B. Williams, of Delaware county, O., is trying to learn what underlies the situation brought about by the taking at Circleville of Henry Hagelgan, Ed McKinley and David McKinley, charged with complicity in the murder three years ago of Miss Fannie Hagelgan, sister of the prisoner. Hagelgan declares the McKinley brothers murdered his sister, then came to him and demanded $1,000 for the deed, telling him they knew he came into possession of her $25,000 estate through her death. He says he paid them $1,025. They told him, too, he says, of killing a hired man, Frank Koltz, who tried to help the woman, and where they buried his body. The authorities have been unable to find Koltz's body. Alonzo England, an eleven-year-old boy, has told them he went to Miss Fannie's room to borrow an auger two weeks after she was murdered, and a week before her body was found. Koltz was there, he says, and blocked the door so he couldn't get in.

NEW SYSTEM TO SUPPLY CITY WITH PURE WATER SOON TO BE INSTALLED

As soon as the winter is over, and possibly before, Newark people will be using water from the city mains
which has been purified by the latest improved chemical process. At the present time the water used is purified by what is known as the "infiltration" system.

The present plan of making the water safe for domestic use has been successful, according to microscopic examination, but the chemical process of filtration is regarded as safer and will be employed as soon as the arrangements can be made at the plant.

Already a storage reservoir, where the purification will take place, has been constructed. It is of concrete and has a capacity of more than 8000 gallons of water.

This basin will be filled with water from the North Fork, forced into
the reservoir by a centrifugal pump, where the purifying chemicals will be introduced, and from this basin
the pure water will be pumped into the mains and reservoir at the crest of Horn's Hill.

This action, which has been found necessary, is a complete vindication
of those who condemned the installation of the infiltration caissons at the municipal plant, or who were doubtful of its practicability.

At the time the purchase of the old water plant was being agitated, many Newark people were led to believe that the installation of the infiltration system at a cost of $10-000 would make it safe to use the water from the municipal mains, and this argument was used against the purchase of the old plant.

The Advocate maintained at the time that the infiltration caissons were impracticable and that they were inadequate for the needs of the city plant, and this claim has been justified by later developments.

In fact, the infiltration plant was only an experiment and was not recommended by expert engineers who construct water works systems.

During the last few months of Mr.
Christian's term as director of service, he caused plans to be prepared for the construction of the clear water basin. This was finished late last fall and the winter weather has made it impossible to put this basin into use.

The walls of the basin are not reinforced, and until dirt is filled in,
carefully on the outside of the basin,
it would be unsafe to turn in the water. As soon as the weather moderates sufficiently to make it possible to excavate and haul dirt, this basin will be placed in condition for use, a centrifugal pump will be purchased, and the water will be purified in this manner.

At present Newark's water supply seeps through the gravel bed of the North Fork, where there is a large natural sandbar, and fills the infiltration caissons, which are sunk
beneath the bed of the stream.

The caissons are large sections of cast-iron pipe, six in number, arranged in pairs. Each is connected with a section of water main, from which the purified water is pumped
by the big engines into the distributing mains.

These caissons have covers, which are perforated with half-inch holes covered with the gravel and sand of the river bed. When new there is no fault to find with this plan of purifying the water. It is nature's process, and, when first constructed,
is highly successful.

However, as the system ages, it becomes ineffectual. The caissons fill up, the perforations become clogged and the supply of filtered water becomes inadequate for the demands of the city.

The mechanical process of filtration is the only absolutely reliable system known, and in river towns where the infiltration system has been tested, it has been abandoned
for the more practical and reliable mechanical or chemical process.

The infiltration system now in vogue was recommended to the Newark officials by Robert W. Pratt of the state board of health, who at that time held the position of chief engineer. He viewed the site and pronounced it ideal for the installation of such a system. He sent Engineer Burgess to the city to draw up plans that would be acceptable to the state board, and it was upon

these plans that the present inadequate system was constructed.

It cost the city about $15,000 to install the system and it has proved serviceable a little less than three years. The proposed system, when installed, will furnish an abundant supply of pure water, which will be pumped into the city mains.

24 INJURED IN A WRICK

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Four people were seriously injured and 30
slightly hurt when the New York Central fast mail, arriving here, four hours late today, unexpectedly took a sidling and crashed into a string of mail cars. Among the seriously injured was Frank Shawdy of Perry, O.

COLD WAVE HOLDS UP THE BIG ICE GORGE

Gallipolis, Jan. 17.—A disastrous flood on the Great Kanawha was delayed today by the cold wave which reached here last night and held up the ice break, which had already begun to move under the thaw. The gorge is the largest in years and extends 40 miles up the river. A fleet of steamers at the mouth of the stream remain ready to hasten to assist.

CITY MUST RESTORE SIXTH STREET PARK AND REMOVE ALL RECENT IMPROVEMENTS

In Common Pleas court on Friday morning, the court announced that a conclusion had been reached as to the final order, judgment and decree of the court in the case of the City of Newark vs. Harriet B. Crane, and the City of Newark vs. Jas. W.
Burnett, et al., in which cases the city sought to quiet the title in it to the old grave yard property at Sixth and Main streets.

The court found in favor of the defendants, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to the relief prayed for in the petition; that many years ago a portion of the premises was dedicated to the city, for the sole purpose of being used as a burial ground; that a large number of bodies were buried in said ground prior to 1868, since which time no bodies have been buried there. In 1868 some of the bodies were disinterred and removed to another cemetery; that a large proportion of the bodies have never been disinterred; that the plaintiff has no
other right, title or interest in said premises except to hold the same as a resting place for the dead who remain interred there. The court further found on the issues joined on the cross petition of the answering defendants that, by plaintiffs

MORSE IS GRANTED FREEDOM

President Taft Commutes Sentence of Former
New York Banker

HAD SERVED TWO YEARS

Army Surgeon in Report Says
Morse Could Not Have Lived Month Longer in Prison.

Washington, Jan. 19.—President
Taft last night commuted to expire immediately the 15-year sentence for violation of the national banking laws under which Charles W. Morse, the New York banker and ice king,
served two years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga. The commutation sentence, which gives Morse his complete freedom, but which, unlike a pardon, does not restore his civil rights, was granted
upon recommendation of Attorney General Wickersham and Surgeon General Torney, U. S. A.

According to the surgeon general's report to the president on his condition, Morse could not live one month longer in confinement, and even at liberty probably would not live six
months.

The White House statement granting freedom to Morse follows:

"The president this afternoon commuted the sentence of Charles W.
Morse to expire at once. This action was taken upon the recommendation of the attorney general, based upon the following report of Surgeon General Torney:

"A careful review of these reports makes it clear to my mind that he is suffering from a combination of diseases due to degenerative changes which are incurable and progressive.
The reports show that both the condition of the kidneys and the heart are growing worse. I regard the attack of cardiac dyspnea, or heart-block, from which he suffered on the morning of the 15th instant as an ominous occurrence.

"In my opinion, the prisoner's duration of life will be, in all probability, less than one month if kept in confinement, and in the event of his release under commutation of sentence, it is not probable that he will live as long as six months."

Mrs. Morse, who arrived here yesterday from New York, was inform-

DYNAMITE WRECKS PUBLIC BUILDING

Pueblo, Cal., Jan. 19.—A terrific dynamite explosion early today partly wrecked the Colorado laundry, in the heart of the business district of this city and damaged the office of the Globe Express Company.

A city detective, who immediately began an investigation, found a dynamite fuse in the alley outside of the express offices.

COLD WAVE IS REPORTED SWEEPING TOWARDS THE OHIO RIVER VALLEY TODAY

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Old Winter
sneaked out of his system yet.
Following the respite of two days, fresh cold wave is starting from the northwest and is due in the Ohio river valley this evening and tonight along the Atlantic Coast and in the Southeastern gulf coast Saturday night.

Wednesday, for the first time in almost three weeks, not a spot in the United States showed below zero.
Last night, however, all of the Northwest was below zero.

High winds are reported over all
a Northwest, sweeping their chilly impliments eastward. Canada has so settled back for another period of frigidty. Battleford reports 24
below, Edmonton, 18; Medicine Hat, 1, Minnesota 26, Q'Appelle 26 and Lunenburg 24.

Snow is falling over Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Idaho, and Mon-ta, and rain is reported from Western New York, Southern Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, California and western Canada.

St. Louis dropped from 21 to 24 last evening.

Indianapolis dropped from 38 to 28.

indicating that streaks of the new
cold wave already are drifting south.
In the gulf coast country Tampa jumped from 54 to 68 and New Orleans from 57 to 67. The Pacific coast has resumed its steady temperature.
Los Angeles showing 58 above last night, Portland, Ore., 42 and San Francisco 52.

Chicago and all its contiguous territory suffered a sleetstorm that greatly hampered transportation, caused the death of many horses by falling and breaking limbs and many injuries to pedestrians.

At Neenah, Wis., an ice gorge has become so great that it is forcing the million dollar Northwestern railway bridge from its foundations. The ice is so thick that dynamite blasts, tried for a week, do not have any permanent effect.

Conditions are alarming at Appleton and other points where great paper mills are located. The ice jams have become so serious that all the big factories, with their valuable machinery, are threatened with damage.
Many of them have closed down, and the owners are devoting their efforts to saving the plants.

CAMPAIGN FOR NEW HOSPITAL IS TO BE WAGED NEXT MAY

The trustees of the Newark Hospital, who for several weeks have been considering the problem of raising a $50,000 building fund in order to establish a new, modern hospital
are along the line suggested in Mr.
and Mrs. E. H. Everett's generous offer, held another meeting Thursday night and practically decided to open a campaign in the month of May.

Already the trustees have been encouraged by a number of voluntary contributions from individuals, labor organizations, lodges and churches.

Practically everybody is interested in the project and the widespread interest in the proposition leads to the belief that the subscription campaign will be successful.

The ten men constituting the board of trustees are S. P. Van Voorhis, W.
D. Fulton, H. D. Woodbridge, F. L.
Beggs, Wm. L. Prout, C. H. Spencer,
J. F. Irwin, Geo. D. Hiney, C. L.
Conrad, W. N. Fulton, Mr. Van Voorhis is chairman, Mr. Woodbridge secretary, and Mr. Prout, treasurer of the board.

KIDNEY REMEDY THAT ACTS LIKE MAGIC

I have been a terrible sufferer for a number of years with kidney and liver trouble, also nervous prostration and health generally poor, constitution entirely run down until life became a burden. I tried physicians and every available remedy, but found no relief. I was induced to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a trial, which acted like magic, and am happy to say that I believe I am entirely cured, and now as good a man as ever.

I believe it my duty to make this public statement that I may help others who may be suffering from the same trouble. Swamp-Root is without question the greatest remedy in the world. Anyone in doubt of this statement or the authenticity can address me as below.

Yours very truly,
M. H. McCoy.
Van Wert, Ohio.
State of Ohio, Van Wert County, ss:
The foregoing statement sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 18th day of July, 1909, by the said M. H. McCoy.
A. C. Gilpin, Notary Public.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., D'Albany, N. Y.
Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., D'Albany, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing, be sure and mention the Newark Daily Advocate. Regular 50-cent and one dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

BISHOP WILLIAMS WILL SPEAK HERE WEDNESDAY, JAN. 24

To Be Under Auspices of Men's Club of Trinity Episcopal Church—To Talk on the Single Tax.

The Rt. Rev. Charles D. Williams, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Eastern Michigan, has accepted an invitation to speak in Newark next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Men's Club of Trinity Episcopal church on the subject of "The Single Tax." Henry George's solution for the relief of poverty. Just now that the state constitutional convention is in session in our neighboring city, and everything bearing on that all important question, "taxes," is undergoing the closest scrutiny, it would be well for those of us who sincerely desire the best of conditions to prevail along taxation lines to investigate for ourselves just what the claims and theories of some of our authorities on the subject may be. Bishop Williams has been a close student of economic conditions and problems confronting the masses, his magazine articles have been read by many of us. While his close association with Henry George, Tom L. Johnson and other advanced thinkers, has led him to their same solution (the single tax).

The Rev. Herbert Bigelow, president of the state constitutional convention and warm personal friend of Bishop Williams, has been invited to introduce the speaker, but it is not yet known definitely whether or not he can leave his duties with the convention on that evening. Two such representatives of advanced thought on the same platform together before a Newark audience would indeed be a revelation.

The lecture is timed for 7:45 p. m. in the parish house of Trinity Episcopal church, corner East Main and First streets, and a certain invitation is extended to all interested to be present. No admission will be charged and no collection taken.

MRS. NANCY HALL IS INDICTED BY THE GRAND JURY

Lancaster, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Nancy Hall, mother of Ruth Hall, who died several weeks ago after eating pancakes in which arsenic was found, today was indicted by the Fairfield county grand jury, charged with murder in the first degree. Mrs. Hall has been in jail for the past two weeks, pending investigation. The husband and two other daughters were made sick after eating the pancakes. Mr. Hall, believing in the innocence of his wife, has employed four attorneys to defend her. The woman collected $200 insurance on the death of her daughter.

MAY REVOLUTIONIZE MANUFACTURE OF LEAGUE BASEBALL

Chicago, Jan. 19.—President Charles W. Murphy brought back from the Panama canal zone an idea which, if carried out, may revolutionize the manufacture of baseballs. While there recently he discovered what is known as an "ivory nut," a substitute used for making buttons. Upon close examination, Mr. Murphy found it to be porous and quite resilient. He conceived the idea of using them in place of the cork centers for baseballs. Mr. Murphy said last night that he would experiment with the view of making the "ivory nut" baseball.

DRIVES A COLD OR THE GRIPPE FROM SYSTEM

You can surely end Grippe and break up the most severe cold either in head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, by taking a dose of Pope's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, mucous catarrh, discharges, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges. Take this harmless Compound as directed, without interference with your usual duties and with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pope's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Pope's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

DRAFT HORSES STAMPEDE.
Bellefonte, Jan. 19.—When 23 draft horses, ready to ship, stampeded here yesterday, V. W. Weatherly and Samuel Calland, drivers, were badly injured. The frightened animals trampled the men under foot.

roses, orchids and white lilies. The mantel in the drawing room, before which the ceremony took place, was transformed into an improvised altar.

A unique feature of the ceremony was that Mrs. Cromwell was given in marriage by her son, Oliver Eaton Cromwell. When Bishop Harding read the words, "Who gives this woman to thee?" young Mr. Cromwell stepped forward and placed his mother's hand in that of Mr. Stotesbury.

Mrs. Stotesbury were a magnificent gown of old ivory panne velvet. She had no attendants, although her daughter, Mrs. Walter Brooks Jr., and son James walked close behind her into the drawing room, where she was met by Mr. Stotesbury and his best man, Robert Emilen Newbold of Philadelphia.

After a buffet supper with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury left at 6 o'clock for the South in Mr. Stotesbury's private car.

The couple will spend the remainder der of this month at Palm Beach and return on Feb. 5 to attend several dinner parties in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown of Baltimore, are to give them a dinner in Baltimore on Feb. 8, and on Feb. 11 they will entertain in a large box party at the opening night of the opera in Philadelphia.

Mr. Stotesbury is the daughter of Judge James Roberts of Chicago, and was well known in social circles there before she married Oliver Eaton Cromwell, a New York banker and society man.

About five years ago the Cromwells joined the Washington winter colony and moved in the exclusive circles here. Mr. Cromwell died two years ago. It was within a week of the second anniversary of his death that Mrs. Cromwell's engagement to Mr. Stotesbury was announced.

Former Justice Moody of the supreme court, had been very attentive to Mrs. Cromwell up to that time. When Justice Moody was stricken with the illness that necessitated his resignation from the bench Mrs. Cromwell is said to have nursed him, and it was confidently expected that they would marry.

Mr. Stotesbury's devotion, however, captured the attractive widow and the romance of their marriage is one of the heart as well as of money.

The bride is a brilliant, gracious in manner and popular among the matrons of Washington. She has three children and is between 40 and 45 years of age.

It is understood that she presented her Washington home in New Hampshire avenue, which was a gift to her from her father, Judge Roberts, last year, to her daughter, Mrs. Walter Brooks Jr., of Baltimore, who will occupy it for the rest of the season.

Her sons will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Stotesbury at their home in Philadelphia.

CHAPTER X.

Back in San Francisco, Daylight quickly added to his reputation. In ways it was not an enviable reputation. Men were afraid of him. He became known as a fighter, a fiend, a tiger. His play was a ripping and smashing one, and no one knew where or how his next blow would fall. The element of surprise was large. He balked on the unexpected, and, fresh from the wild North, his mind not operating in stereotyped channels, he was able in unusual degree to devise new tricks and stratagems. And once he won the advantage, he pressed it remorselessly. "As relentless as a Red Indian," was said of him, and it was said truly.

He was a free lance, and had no friendly business associations. Such alliances as were formed from time to time were purely affairs of expediency, and he regarded his allies as men who would give him the double-cross, or ruin him if a profitable chance presented. In spite of this point of view, he was faithful to his allies. But he was faithful just as long as they were and no longer. The reason had to come from them, and then it was "Ware Daylight."

The business men and financiers of the Pacific coast never forgot the lesson of Charles Klinkner and the California & Altamont Trust Company. Klinkner was the president. In partnership with Daylight, the pair raided the San Jose Interurban. The powerful Lake Power & Electric Lighting corporation came to the rescue, and Klinkner, seeing what he thought was the opportunity, went over to the enemy in the thick of the pitched battle. Daylight lost three millions before he was done with it, and before he was done with it he saw the California & Altamont Trust Company hopelessly wrecked, and Charles Klinkner a suicide in a felon's cell.

So it was that Daylight became a successful financier. He did not go in for swindling the workers. Not only did he not have the heart for it, but it did not strike him as a sporting proposition. The workers were so easy, so stupid. It was more like slaughtering fat, hand-reared pheasants on the English preserves he had read about. The sport, to him, was in waylaying the successful robbers and taking their spoils from them. The grim Yukon life had failed to make Daylight hard. It required civilization to produce this result. In the fierce, savage game he now played, his habitual gentility imperceptibly slipped away from him, as did his lazy Western drawl.

He still had recurrences of geniality, but they were largely periodical and forced, and they were usually due to the cocktails he took prior to mealtime. In the North he had drunk deeply and at irregular intervals; but now his drinking became systematic and disciplined. It was an unconscious development, but it was based upon physical and mental conditions. The cocktails served as an inhibition. Without reasoning or thinking about it, the strain of the office, which was essentially due to the daring and audacity of his ventures, required check or cessation; and he found, through the weeks and months, that the cocktails supplied this very thing. They constituted a stone wall. He never drank during the morning, nor in office hours; but the instant he left the office he proceeded to rear this wall of alcoholic inhibition against his consciousness. The office became immediately a closed affair. It ceased to exist. In the afternoon, after lunch, it lived again for one or two hours, when, leaving it, he rebuilt the wall of inhibition. Of course, there were exceptions to this; and, such was the rigor of his discipline, that if he had a dinner or a conference before him in which, in a business way, he encountered enemies or allies, he planned or prosecuted campaigns, he abstained from drinking. But the instant the business was settled, his everlasting call went out for a Martini, and for a double-Martini at that, in a long glass so as not to excite comment.

Into Daylight's life came Dede Mason. She came rather imperceptibly. He had accepted her impersonally along with the office furnishing, the office boy, Morrison, the chief, confidential, and only clerk, and all the rest of the accessories of a superman's gambling place of business. Had he been asked any time during the first months she was in his employ, he would have been unable to tell the color of her eyes. From the fact that she was a demi-blonde, there resided dimly in his subconsciousness a conception that she was a brunette. Likewise he had an idea that she was not thin, while there was an absence in his mind of any idea that she was fat. And how she dressed, he had no idea at all. He had no trained eye in such matters, nor was he interested. He took it for granted, in the lack of any impression to the contrary, that she was dressed somehow. He knew her as "Miss Mason," and that was son, the clerk, who had first to vent his personal grievance against Miss Mason before he could tell what little he knew of her.

"She comes from Siskiyou County. She's very nice to work with in the office, of course, but she's rather stuck on herself—exclusive, you know."

"How do you make that out?" Daylight queried.

"Well, she thinks too much of herself to associate with those she works with, in the office here, for instance. She won't have anything to do with a fellow, you see. I've asked her out repeatedly, to the theater and the chutes and such things. But nothing doing. Says she likes plenty of sleep, and can't stay up late, and has to go all the way to Berkeley—that's where she lives. But that's all hot air. She's running with the University boys, that's what she's doing. She needs lots of sleep, and can't go to the theater with them, but she can dance all hours with them. I've heard it pretty straight that she goes to all their hops and such things. Rather stylish and high-toned for a stenographer, I'd say. And she keeps a horse, too. She rides astride all over those hills out there. I saw her one Sunday myself. Oh, she's a high-flyer, and I wonder how she does it. Sixty-five a month don't go far. Then she has a sick brother, too."

"Live with her people?" Daylight asked.

"No; hasn't got any. They were well to do, I've heard. They must have been, or that brother or hers couldn't have gone to the University of California. Her father had a big cattle-ranch, but he got to fooling with mines or something, and went broke before he died. Her mother died long before that. Her brother must cost a lot of money. He was a husky once, played football, was great on hunting and being out in the mountains and such things. He got his accident breaking horses; and then rheumatism or something got into him. One leg is shorter than the other, and withered up some. He has to walk on crutches. I saw her out with him once—crossing the ferry. The doctors have been experimenting on him for years, and he's in the French Hospital now, I think."

All of which side-lights on Miss Mason went to increase Daylight's interest in her. Yet, much as he desired, he failed to get acquainted with her. He had thoughts of asking her to luncheon, but his was the innate chivalry of the frontiersman, and the thoughts never came to anything. He knew a self-respecting, square-dealing man was not supposed to take his stenographer to luncheon. Such things did happen, he knew, for he heard the chaffing gossip of the club; but he did not think much of such men and felt sorry for the girls.

CURIOUS STORIES OF MIGRATION OF VARIOUS BIRDS

Birds sometimes make extensive migrations, even if they are of a species not common migratory, says the Detroit Free Press. Prairie chickens once flew northward from Illinois prairies and passed over the city of Detroit, Mich., in great flocks, thousands of them lighting in the city limits before crossing the river to Canada.

Proceeding in this strange flight, thousands of them were drowned in Lake Superior, but so many of them sustained the long flight that they stocked districts north of the lake and made a prairie chicken hunting ground where there never had been such game before.

No satisfactory explanation of that migration, unprecedented, so far as known, was ever made, but the general opinion among sportsmen acquainted with conditions there is that it was forced by the persistent, excessive and indiscriminate raids of the market hunters on those birds.

An equally strange migration of wild turkeys once occurred in Michigan. These big game birds were plentiful in the Michigan woods and were being hunted mercilessly by organized parties in the employ of dealers in Chicago and other cities. They disappeared from their haunts as suddenly and completely as if they had never been there. But they could not hide their exodus, their numbers were so great. It is chronicled that the migrating host was a quarter of a mile wide and was several hours in passing. They journeyed westward and in the course of time wild turkeys were reported as more than plentiful where they had rarely been seen before.

The mysterious disappearance of the passenger pigeon, of which there were millions in this country one day and not one to be seen anywhere the next, had not as fortunate a sequel as the Michigan wild turkey, for no word has ever been heard as to where the wild pigeons went.

An unaccountable appearance of birds in large numbers and of a kind not common to the region was that of the myriads of owls that suddenly came down on the game covers in the Saanah district of British Columbia in 1897, and played havoc with the pheasants, grouse and quail as well as with domestic poultry.

Where they came from was and is a mystery. They were chiefly the species known as the bubo owl, well known in Maryland and Virginia, where it seems to be partial to crows as prey. Of these raiding owls in that northwestern area 500 were killed on Vancouver Island, 200 in the city of Victoria, by sportsmen who rose in arms against them. More than 1,500 owls were killed in a few weeks where perhaps not fifty of any kind had ever been seen before. It was supposed that intense cold weather had driven the destructive birds from their homes further north.

The livers of 100 codfish are needed to produce a gallon of oil.

OBITUARY

VOGLE INGLE.

The remains of Vogle Ingle arrived in Columbus, Tuesday, Jan. 16, over the B. & O. railway from Rainy River, Ontario, Canada, accompanied by Mr. John Naber of Rainy River Lodge, No. 828, Brotherhood of Railway, Teammen.

Mr. Ingle was killed in a head-on collision at Berwick, Ontario, Canada, Jan. 10, 25 miles east of Rainy River. Mr. Ingle up until 6 months ago held a position on the Big Four as conductor in the yards at Columbus, but seeing brighter prospects ahead by going to Canada, he accepted a position in the train service on the Canadian Northern railway, and was meeting with the best of success up to the time of his death, caused by the opposing train crew overrunning order block. No blame for the accident was charged against any member of Ingle's crew.

Vogle Ingle leaves a wife, two sons, Master Harry, 4 years old, Master Carl, 2 years old, a father, mother and two brothers, Beryl Ingle of Columbus, and Thos. Ingle of this city.

JEREMIAH BRUMBACK.

The funeral of Jeremiah Brumback took place at the home of his son, Prof. A. M. Brumback, Granville, O., Jan. 8, 1912, services being conducted by Rev. C. J. Baldwin.

Mr. Brumback was the son of John and Rebecca Davis Brumback and was born Sept. 16, 1833, on the farm of his father, the late John Brumback, near Jacksonstown, O. He was early converted and united with the Baptist church at Granville, O., when a student there. For a number of years he successfully taught at Franklin College, Indiana, and afterwards studied law. He practiced at Boise City, Idaho until overcome with age. He was a patient sufferer. Burial was made in Maple Grove cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness extended to us in our late bereavement in the death of our son and brother Vogle. We also thank the foreman and painters of the Jewett Car Co. for the beautiful floral tribute sent.

Crisco Marble Cake

LIGHT PART	DARK PART
1 1/2 cups sugar	1 cup brown sugar
3/4 cup milk	1/2 cup Crisco; add salt
1/2 teaspoon soda	1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup Crisco; add salt	1/2 cup sour milk
1 teaspoon Cream of Tartar	2 1/2 cups flour
4 eggs (whites only)	3/4 teaspoon Cream of Tartar
2 1/2 cups flour	1/2 teaspoon Soda
1 teaspoon vanilla	4 eggs (yolks only)
	Teaspoon cinnamon; 1/2 teaspoon of allspice, cloves and nutmeg

A shortening richer than butter! You will think that such a thing is impossible until you use Crisco where you now use butter, as for example in Marble Cake, which requires a cup of butter.

The best creamery butter which you can secure is nearly one-fifth water, while Crisco is all shortening. There is no moisture to dry out and Marble Cake, made with Crisco may be kept longer without loss of its original delicate flavor.

If you will use this recipe for Crisco Marble Cake, you will find that Crisco makes the white part equal to angel food in whiteness and gives both the light and dark parts a fine, soft texture and a richer flavor than you have ever been able to secure before. You will find that it gives actually better results than butter, at half the cost.

Order a package of Crisco from your grocer and try it in this recipe for Crisco Marble Cake.

HEART AND HOME TALKS

BY BARBARA BOYD

If People and Things Get on Your Nerves.

It is a very real thing to you, if pounding and hammering get on your nerves, so that you feel that you will fly to pieces. It may seem foolish to other people, but it is very serious to you. It is also a very real grievance to you if a window rattles in the night so that you cannot sleep. Every slightest thump and bang makes you fairly leap from bed; and the longer it continues, the worse you get. Repetition doesn't dull your senses to it; rather, they become more and more alert.

It is very true, too, that some people drive you nearly distracted. You would go out of your way a mile to avoid meeting Mrs. Jones, she gets on your nerves so. It may be silly to others. But to you, it is a very sad fact.

Many people are suffering in just such ways. What is to be done about it? Can they not get beyond the reach of such irritations? If they cannot, they are at the mercy of a very cruel world. They are more powerful than a fly in the face of a hurricane. For the world is full of noises and unpleasant people, if we see things in this way.

And this really is the gist of the matter. If we want to prevent things from getting on our nerves, we will have to change our viewpoint toward them. We may do certain physical things that will help. We may get more exercise and more fresh air, and eat less stimulating and more nourishing food, and all these will build us up physically and aid us to resist the effects of these irritants. But these are not enough; and sometimes, they are of no avail. The surest cure in these cases is a mental remedy. If we will change our mental attitude toward them, they are powerless.

It is a well-known fact that if we are intensely absorbed in something, we can sit in a room and hear nothing that is going on. Our consciousness does not take cognizance of the sensations of sound. Often, if deeply interested in a book or some work, we do not hear any one speaking to us. So we can close our ears mentally, if we wish to.

And this is what we should do, if irritating sounds obtrude. We should think upon something that will absorb all our attention. Whatever interests us most, we should deliberately turn our mind upon. If we have thought we could invent something, then and there invent it. If we have wanted to travel, plan the journey we desire to take. If we want a new dress, design it. Before we know it, the irritating sounds will have faded from our consciousness, or have become but a soothing undertone.

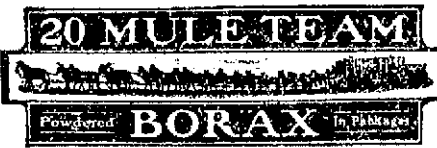

In regard to the people who irritate us, we need to get a bigger outlook. They get on our nerves because they differ from us. They do not dress according to our standards, or they express views that "rile" us, or they have some mannerism that is objectionable. But we should try to see that the whole of the cosmos is not summed up in us; that they have a right to their different outlook on life; that perhaps even, they could give us some points, if we were not so narrow and opinionated. The cure for people who get on our nerves is really a broadened sympathy and a more tolerant attitude. And this in reality is helpful to ourselves, and will bring us more enjoyment in life.

And as a simple, practical aid when nerves are tense, or sleeplessness has us in its thrall, try rhythmic breathing. If persisted in, this will gradually soothe excited nerves and bring sleep. Take the breath in for a certain number of heart-beats, hold it for half the number, exhale for the full number, and hold it again for the half number, before beginning the process over again. If this is practised for a little while, a soothing feeling of rest and quiet steals over the whole body, nerves relax, and before we know it, we are asleep.

SECURITIES WORTH $443,000 ARE MISSING

René, Nev., Jan. 19.—The true reason for the exciting game of hide and seek played by Eugene C. Batten and his wife of New York came out yesterday when it was said that search warrants sworn out by the husband were obtained for the purpose of discovering securities said to be worth $443,000, which the wife was supposed to have in her baggage.

Mrs. Batten was the wife of David L. Rotschild, the embezzling banker, and the securities were said to have been given to her the day before the failure of the Federal bank. The search for the concealed wealth followed the beginning of divorce proceedings by Batten.

Mrs. Batten departed last evening for the home of Louis Kessel, her father, in New York city.

"I have nothing whatever to say," was her only reply to several efforts to secure statements from her.

GIRL COULD NOT SLEEP

Miss Van Steenburg, a Brooklyn girl, lately found herself unable to sleep. Of course she was worried because there is nothing that will more quickly and certainly wreck health than to be unable to rest at night.

Now sleeplessness is just a symptom of failing health, and is caused by unequal circulation of the blood. Someone, evidently, gave her some good advice for she says in a recent letter, "I had been all run down and tired out for some time and got so I could not sleep nights. I had heard so much about Vinol that I tried it and it has restored my strength, made me able to sleep and eat well, and I am now quite well again."

"This delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil (Vinol) does wonders in building up weak, nervous, sickly people of all ages. It makes the blood rich and pure, corrects the faulty circulation and restores appetite. We promise to give back the money in case Vinol does not please you. F. D. Hall, druggist, Newark, Ohio.

Daddy's Bedtime

When Obstinate
Story—Neddy Stopped
Too Long

Neddy Had Once
Smashed a Fine Cart

JACK and Evelyn wanted their bedtime story. "I think," said daddy, "I'll tell you about a little brown mule. Maybe Neddy wasn't so small from a little boy's standpoint, but then he was a good deal smaller than a horse or than mules in general."

"Neddy's early days were spent on a large farm where there were many other mules. But he was sold and sent from the quiet farm and the friends of his youth to a town where work was the aim of every one's life. Neddy had to go to work too."

"Sometimes Neddy had good masters, and sometimes he had bad ones. Sometimes he got enough to eat, and sometimes he didn't. And along with this Neddy got some bad habits. Neddy had been born a trifle set in his way, and shabby treatment made him still more cranky. If anything happened to annoy Neddy he would just stop and stand quite still until he had worn out the patience of his master."

"Neddy had learned that if he used his heels in a lively way his driver was often afraid to whip him. Neddy had once smashed a fine cart for a man who had whipped him too much."

"At last Neddy belonged to a colored man who had lived on a farm where mules were raised. What he didn't know about mules wasn't worth knowing. One day the master hitched Neddy into the little wagon in which he took kindling wood around to his customers. The colored man treated Neddy well. He fed him and groomed him and never spoke crossly or beat him."

"One evening the colored man put into the cart a tin wash kettle which he was taking home to his wife. It bumped and rattled around. Neddy did not like the noise. So he stopped short in the middle of the road and planted his feet firmly. He didn't mean to budge till he was ready."

"After waiting a few minutes to see if the mule would not go along the colored man got down, tied Neddy's halter around a tree and then took his wash kettle and went home."

"Neddy was amazed. He waited for his master to come back. An hour, two, three, passed. Neddy began to get hungry. He watched down the street eagerly. It was evening before his master came and, putting the wash kettle again into the wagon, called a cheerful 'Giddyup' to the mule."

"Neddy got. He had never been so hungry, for he had had no food since his early breakfast time."

"Neddy was clever. He never forgot the long wait. After that he was a great deal less set in his way. When told to get up he never failed to get. He had learned to be afraid of long waits."

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness.

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health. Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regarding the effects of constipation, C. E. Ayers, 63 Babine St., Montpelier, Vt., says: "I was afflicted with constipation and biliousness for years, and at times became so bad I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean," and it's good advice.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

GRANVILLE MASONS MAY ERECT HOME

Plans Under Way for Building Lodge Room Over Perry Store—Special Meeting Held.

Granville, O., Jan. 19.—It now begins to look as though the members of old Center Star Lodge of Masons of this place were soon to be comfortably installed in a new home of their own. For some time past the matter of owning their own lodge room or temple has been contemplated and there has been considerable discussion of the matter which finally resulted in a special meeting of the lodge being held Thursday night for the purpose of deciding the matter. Arrangements have been made with L. V. Perry, one of Granville's most prominent business men to erect another story on his business house to be used for lodge purposes, provided the lodge so decided. At the meeting held Thursday night it was the unanimous expression of the members that the lodge room should be built, and work will be commenced just as soon as the necessary money for its construction is assured. Plans and specifications have been prepared for the new addition to the Perry building, which will include the lodge room proper, ante rooms, etc. They were on exhibition at the meeting on Thursday night. At the conclusion of the business before the meeting a fine lunch was served.

COEDS FUSS OVER A COMING LEAP YEAR BALL

Oberlin, Jan. 19.—Oberlin's senior coeds have gone on partial strike and the college seniors threaten to go wholly on strike owing to the action of the former relating to the coming leap year.

The coeds decided to go outside the ranks of the seniors in sending out invitations for personal escorts, and the latter to show their resentment, are considering a migration from the city in a body the night of the festivities. Giving the men a little of their own medicine, and if those who are not specifically asked to attend do not take advantage of a general invitation it will be their own loss.

AMUSEMENTS

Press Agent Says:

The Chocolate Soldier. Laden with the spoils of two theatrical seasons and the victor in hundreds of encounters with critics and audiences north, east, south and west "The Chocolate Soldier," Oscar Strauss' peerless musical version of MISS EMMA LOOMIS As "March" in "The Chocolate Soldier" at the Auditorium Saturday Night.

George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man," and the Whitney opera. Company of chocolate soldiers and chocolate soldiers will march into this city on Saturday night, to gain the allegiance of the theatregoers of Newark with the blandishments of their songs and the charms of their adventure.

Two clever Frenchmen, Paul Herve and Jean Briquet, and the English adaptation was made by George V. Hobart the well known American humorist. "Alma, Where Do You Live?" is one of the Simon-pure successes of New York, the fact which is attested to by the run of one entire season at Weber's theatre to the largest crowds in the history of the playhouse, not excepting the famous Weber & Fields successes. One of the pleasing features of the performance is the Alma waltz a most dreamy melody which is infectious.

Keep on Pleading Hobby. "Life's a stage and wife's got to tend the glare or hubby's bound to shift the spotlight." This is another wise saying of the "widow in Henretta Crossman's great successful comedy which will be seen here soon. Husbands and wives, sweethearts and lovers, grown-ups and children, all are there and you will recognize your selves just as easy as if you were gazing in a looking glass. New York loved "The Real Thing." It is a real success.

THE ORPHEUM. The Four Dancing Belles, the all-star act on the bill which opened at the cozy Arcade theatre yesterday was one of the big hits of the season. Every performance yesterday they played to crowded houses and every patron seemed highly appreciative of the excellent work they offered. A prettier troupe of girls was never seen at the Orpheum, their costuming is magnificent and the way they can sing and dance is something wonderful. They kept their audiences in continuous applause and are more than deserving the praise they are receiving.

WEATHER MAN PROMISES US COLD SPELL

After experiencing an enjoyable (?) warm spell for a few days, Newark received another slap from the weather man Friday morning when shortly after midnight the mercury took a sudden drop and the rain which fell most of Thursday turned into snow. The slush which followed the rain Wednesday and Thursday was frozen and this ice was soon covered with several inches of snow. The temperature dropped from 40 and 45 degrees Thursday afternoon to 20 by 7 o'clock Friday morning and though the sun shone brightly most of Friday, the temperature remained stationary. Fortunately the cold snap is not sufficiently severe to again endanger the gas supply and the pressure was as strong as usual. The weather man promises colder weather tonight and tomorrow. He also says that we will have more snow.

Happy Golden, a very popular black-face comedian was up-to-the minute in his classy song and funny stories. He was well received and won many a hand by his clever mannerism alone. Traverse, Ray and Co. presented a singing sketch entitled "The Last Issue," which was very interesting. Miss Ivar is quite an attractive young lady and possesses a beautiful voice. There is a nice lot of comedy mingled throughout the act and every member of the trio displays some clever acting. It is a true story of the press and something you will all like. Annetta Link in character singing and dancing has one of the classiest little acts in her line, in the business. She is a very sweet girl, with a pleasing manner and some excellent work. ## KIRKERSVILLE MAN CHARGED WITH ARSON

Deputy Fire Marshal W. K. Cooksey of Columbus, arrived in Newark about 6 o'clock Thursday night, having in custody A. L. Roshon, age 27, a restaurant keeper in Kirkersville. Roshon was lodged in the county jail on a charge of arson, preferred by First Deputy State Fire Marshal Hartupce, following an investigation made into a fire of mysterious origin which was discovered in Roshon's restaurant at Kirkersville Wednesday night.

Roshon was arraigned before Mayor Zirkle of Kirkersville Thursday afternoon and after entering a plea of guilty to the charge of arson, was bound over to the common pleas court under bond in the sum of $500. It was Wednesday night about 10:30 when a blaze was discovered in the Roshon restaurant. The bucket brigade promptly extinguished the flames and the circumstances surrounding the fire were sufficiently mysterious to warrant the authorities in calling in the state fire marshal to investigate.

Deputies Hartupce and Cooksey conducted the investigation which resulted in suspicion resting upon Roshon. He was closely questioned and on Thursday Roshon made a confession to the officials. He admitted

NERVOUSNESS OHIO PYTHIAN FESTIVAL AT COLUMBUS, O.

This Man Given Up by Doctors Took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and Was Cured.

Mr. Elmer E. Warwick, a foundryman, of No. 108 Ash street, Albion, Mich., says:

"I had an attack of the grip which left me in a very weakened condition. Soon after my legs began to have numb spells and darting pains went through them. Little by little I lost the use of both legs. I had to lie in bed for four or five weeks. For a year I was out of work because I was unable to get around. I had a doctor from Detroit look me over and he said there was no show for me; another doctor said that it was only a question of time when I would die. I kept running down. My stomach and digestion seemed affected by the paralysis. I could keep nothing on my stomach except raw eggs. I was extremely emaciated and a nervous wreck. I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in a paper and took them for six months because I saw that I was improving after I had used the first box. At the end of that time I was entirely cured of paralysis and my general system was restored to a healthy condition. I don't know how many boxes of the pills I used but I do not begrudge the outlay as it was much smaller than the other treatments. I have never had any recurrence of the paralysis and am now in good health. I owe my life and health to the painstaking and long-continued use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I believe they are the best remedy for paralysis."

There is absolutely no way of reaching the nerves with medicine except through the blood. The nerves receive all of their nourishment and support from the blood, which under healthful conditions, carries the elements needed to rebuild wasted nerve tissue. Every person who is interested in the home treatment of nervous disorders should send for a new edition of our free booklet entitled, "Diseases of the Nervous System."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful or habit-forming drugs and the sufferer who gives them a trial will avoid the danger so common in taking drugs which only deaden pain.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

THE COURT OF FINAL APPEAL

Considering the bad weather a most complimentary audience heard A. W. Conner tell the story of "The Worst Boy in Town." It was most entertaining and instructive. A musical program consisting of piano solo by Miss Trout, a duet by Miss Seeger and Mr. Glen Allen and also solo by Mr. Allen preceded the lecture. It is most evident that the campaign in behalf of our boys is awakening the friends of the boys. Taylor hall should be packed tonight to hear the lecture on "The Heart of a Boy, or The Court of Final Appeal." The lecture will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and will be preceded by a musical program.

The boys' meetings are a whirlwind of interest and enthusiasm. The banquet at which perhaps 300 boys will be fed will be given in the Central Church of Christ. Citizens who would like to donate to the banquet should call Mrs. Mary Benear, 875 R Bell phone.

The boys will make their journey through the Dungeon Saturday morning beginning at 9 o'clock. Watch for announcements of the work for Sunday when the campaign will close.

JOEL ON THE JOB. Bellefontaine, O., Jan. 19. — Joel Walker, 75 years old, of West Liberty, and Mrs. Mary Marmon, 37 years old of Zanesfield, came here yesterday and were married, surprising their friends. He is said to hold the record for continuous service as an assessor, having served 40 years in this county.

HOMES ARE QUARANTINED. Lock, Jan. 19. — Three homes here are quarantined on account of the prevalence of scarlet fever among members of the family. The homes are those of Edw. Hawkins, Basil Moreland and J. M. Higgins. The cases are said to be mild and no fears are entertained that the disease will spread.

Committees on reception and other features of entertainment have been appointed and the arrangements for the big Ohio Pythian festival to be held at Columbus, January 24th are fast nearing completion. It is expected that between 2,000 and 3,000 visitors from Ohio lodges will attend the festivities. The Grand Lodge rank will be conferred in Memorial Hall on that evening, in McCoy Post room No. 1 at 7:30 p. m.

J. M. Izer, chairman of the general committee on arrangements has received letters of acceptance from practically all of the Supreme Lodge Officers and they will be guests of honor during the day. A reception will be tendered them in the parlors of the Nell House during the afternoon.

The principal addresses at the big meeting to be held at Memorial hall in the evening will be delivered by George M. Hanson of Calais, Maine, Supreme Chancellor, and H. P. Brown of Cleburne, Texas, Past Grand Chancellor. There will also be a number of attractive musical features during the evening program.

Addresses of welcome will be delivered by the Governor and Mayor on behalf of the State and City respectively.

Newark members of the order are looking forward to a most enjoyable treat on that date.

CLEVER WORK OF CHIEF BLIZZARD LANDS CULPRIT

Police Chief Elmer Blizzard assisted by Patrolman Chas. O. Burke Thursday evening after investigating a case where money had been extracted from the safe of the City Drug Store, arrested a young man and charged him with the theft. Friday morning Chief Blizzard put him through the sweating process and the boy acknowledged that he had gone into the drug store ostensibly to get warm. He saw an open safe and while the proprietor's back was turned extracted a roll of one dollar bills from a compartment to $10. Friday morning he was assessed $5 and costs and given thirty days in jail by Mayor Swartz.

NO MORE CONSTIPATION —WHEE!

IT'S ME FOR OLIVE TABLETS!

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for Calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the Formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No griping is the "key-note" of these little sugar-coated tablets.

They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

It is easy to compel bowel and liver activity for a time with calomel and nasty, sickening, griping castor oil, but the after effects are dangerous, and the real cause of the trouble is often not even touched.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

They never gripe.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure, and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bed-time. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

10c. and 25c. per box. The Olive Tablet Company of Columbus, Ohio. Dr. F. M. Edwards, President.

RECEIVER IS ASKED FOR A TRANSFER CO.

A petition has been filed in the court of Common Pleas by Thomas Hottelberry vs. Thos. B. Kirk. Hottelberry says that he and the defendant entered into a partnership agreement in July, 1909, whereby they each were to furnish one-half of the money and conduct the business of a boarding and feed stable and run a transfer line. Plaintiff says that differences and dissensions have arisen between him and the defendant, that defendant refuses to deal with plaintiff as a partner, refuses to longer conduct the business as a partnership, and refuses to make any settlement with the plaintiff. Plaintiff asks the court to appoint a receiver to take charge of the property and business, and for an accounting. The motion for the appointment of a receiver will be for hearing January 21.

POLICY ISSUED TO INSURE THE SAFETY OF FUNDS

New York, Jan. 19.—A $5,000,000 insurance policy, the life of which is three hours, was issued yesterday to guarantee a New York banking house against loss by highwaymen during the transfer from the burned Equitable building of a fortune in cash and securities which must be carried for six blocks through the streets.

Although the surety company assumes the risk of loss, the actual protection devolves upon the city, for a squad of police will be the only guards.

The surety company called the policy a hold-up and robbery policy, and receives $500 for the risk.

SOUND SLEEP FOR NERVE WRECKED PEOPLE

Hundreds With Nervous Trouble Are Being Benefitted By Morse's Glycerole, the Purely Vegetable Nerve Tonic Which Evans' Drug Store Guarantees.

That old devil, insomnia, is the greatest-looking agent on earth. The result of his never-ending labor is so great that it requires thousands of sanitariums and hundreds of insane asylums to take care of his bookings.

The overflow he sends to prisons, jails, workhouses and graveyards. Of course, he has some help; his chief aids are morphine, bromides, and coal tar products.

Morse's Glycerole is a pure vegetable nerve tonic that will force old insomnia to cut your acquaintance in short order. The formula is on every label.

It is such a safe and harmless nerve sedative that thousands of physicians prescribe it for teething infants—mothers should remember this.

It is guaranteed for brain, fog, nervousness, sleeplessness, despondency and lack of vital force.

For people broken in health from over indulgence in alcohol or tobacco, or from excess of any kind Morse's Glycerole is guaranteed.

Reads pretty strong, and it is the strongest guarantee that anyone can give. But Mr. Hazen Morse, the expert chemist, who has been scientifically compounding Morse's Glycerole for physicians and hospitals for 32 years, knows so well what his product will do that he is willing to pay the price if Morse's Glycerole fails to benefit run down people.

Large bottles for 50 cents—24-page booklet free. Ask Evans' Drug Store. Mail orders, filled, charges prepaid, by Hazen Morse, New Rochelle, N. Y.

Now don't forget that there is no remedy on earth so good for indigestion or upset stomach as Morse's Dyspepsin. 50 cents at Evans' Drug Store.

SALVATION ARMY RUMMAGE SALE FOR LOCAL CHARITY

Captains Martin and Ryan of the Salvation Army said to the Advocate today: "Now that the winter is upon us we have constant calls from the needy for help. During last winter the Salvation Army was the agency by which $2,000 was dispensed with for the needy poor. At the rate we have helped this year we will pass last year's mark. There seems to be more suffering this year than ever before. People come to us for help who have never asked aid before. During one week of this winter we gave $22 worth of groceries alone to needy people. The local officers are arranging to give a rummage sale in order to help carry on their winter's work. Clothing of any kind will be received gladly. Sale all next week commencing Monday."

Pettit introduced woman suffrage proposals.

Mr. Thomas of Cuyahoga, Socialist, submitted a dream of industrial ease and comfort. It provides for a maximum workday of eight hours, to be shortened from time to time in keeping with increased productivity of machinery; a rest period of one and a half days a week; prohibition of employment of children under 16, and of contract convict labor; wages to be paid weekly in currency; compensation fund for employees killed in accidents or who die from occupational diseases; the state to insure workers against sickness and old age, and to provide work for the unemployed.

Mr. Cordes of Hamilton proposed compensation for workmen killed or injured or suffering from occupational diseases.

An anti-fraud proposal by Mr. Hahn provides that all fraudulent acts of the legislature shall be void forever, and any law or decree of court to the effect that a legislative grant, whether of money, lands or privileges, is sacred and inviolable shall be void and invalid, if it be proven that it was obtained by fraud, deceit or bribery. He also would have no law take effect until the supreme court pass on it, and would compel the court to state a reason for every decision.

He also would abolish grand juries and coroners and vest their duties in the office of prosecuting attorneys. He would have a common pleas jury of 15, with 12 sufficient for a verdict. Mr. Elson of Athens thinks a verdict should be rendered by 8 of 12 jurors.

To take the veto power from the governor was proposed by Mr. Okey of Noble; to empower the governor to remove all elected officials, state and local, by Mr. Hahn. Mr. Baum of Ross would restrict county officers to one four-year term. Another Hahn proposal forbids any law recognizing political parties.

Stanley Bowle presented as a petition the invitation of the city of Cincinnati to have the convention Mr. Doty of Cleveland; intimating an invitation would come from Cleveland, had the Bowle petition referred to the rules committee.

Cincinnati in its petition boasted of its climate, hotels and libraries and offered a free hall and its gracious hospitality.

EX-FIRE MARSHAL

Settles With State for Irregularities in Office—"Hy" D. Davis, Forks Over $900.

Columbus, Jan. 19.—The claims of the state, aggregating $2500, against former State Fire Marshal Henry D. Davis, charged with irregularities in office, were settled today by Attorney General Hogan for $900. Following the settlement, the attorney general declared that Davis was guilty of no moral wrong and had acted upon the ruling of a former attorney general which held that the fire marshal might reside in any part of the state and have his hotel bills, railroad fare and other expenses paid by the state. Davis had hotel bills amounting to more than $500, trips to conventions, $75; railroad and telephone bills to more than $1000. Other expenses completed the $2500 charged against him.

Danville, Jan. 19.—C. W. Montgomery of Newark addressed the Farmers' Institute here yesterday. The institute was well attended. Hon. L. B. Houck and Ex-Prosecutor Columbus Ewalt also addressed the institute.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR ROOSEVELT SAYS GOVERNOR

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 19.—Governor William E. Glasscock, of West Virginia, issued a statement last night in which he declares that a careful canvass of the political situation in West Virginia has convinced him that the people of the state are overwhelmingly for Colonel Theodore Roosevelt for the Republican presidential nomination and he calls upon the people to elect delegates to the Chicago national convention who will vote for his nomination. Governor Glasscock says in part: "I believe it is generally understood that I have a very kindly feeling for President Taft, but a careful canvass of the situation has thoroughly convinced me that an overwhelming majority of the Republicans of West Virginia are for Roosevelt. "I am certain Roosevelt will not seek the nomination or work for it in any way, directly or indirectly, and I believe he would not accept it if it came as the result of intrigue for his personal benefit. But if it comes to him as the result of a genuine popular movement because the people want him to do a job for the people, as a whole, because the people as a whole believe that he is the best man to do that job, then, I am sure he will accept. "So far as I am personally concerned I am in hearty accord with the sentiment of my party in West Virginia for the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt."

It's all right to give the devil his due, but don't pay him a bonus.

The Peevish Child Needs a Laxative

It is natural for a child to laugh and play when it sulks drowsily or cries you may depend on it something physical is the matter. If you see no evidences of a serious ailment you will not be wrong if you quietly give it a dose of mild laxative that evening or putting it to bed.

The remedy most generally recommended for this purpose is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which mothers throughout the country have been giving their children for a quarter of a century. Today thousands of families are using it where hundreds used it then, and there must be good reason for this word of mouth recommendation.

It is admittedly the perfect laxative for children, women, old people and all others who need a gentle bowel stimulant and not a violent salt, cathartic pill or doctored water. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will act gently, and when taken before retiring will bring complete satisfaction in the morning.

After a short use of this remedy all forms of outside aid can be dispensed with and nature will again act alone.

All classes of good American people keep it in the home for ill of the stomach, liver, bowels, and among the thousands who have written the doctor that they will never be without it are Mrs. G. W. Evans, Madison, Ohio, and Mrs. L. B. Clark, 2409 Clark Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. A dose of it has saved many a person from a serious illness.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.
